

Biography of James Chan

James Chan, Ph.D., is President of Asia Marketing and Management (AMM), a Philadelphia-based consultancy specialized in coaching U.S. firms and mentoring their executives on exporting American-made products and professional services to China and Asia and in building business relationships there.

Since he founded his practice in 1983, James Chan has coached more than 100 U.S. companies on doing business in China and Asia. His clients include Westinghouse Electric Company, Kingsbury, Kodak, 3 Com, Nationwide Insurance, American Management Association, the University of Pennsylvania, Vulcan Spring Mfg. Co., Lucent Technologies, ASTM, Drug Information Association, the Robotic Industries Association and privately-held small and mid-sized manufacturers, publishing, software, information firms and trade associations.

He is a member of the Greater Philadelphia Senior Executives Group, the Mid-Atlantic Consultants Network, and the Mid-Atlantic District Export Council of the U.S. Department of Commerce.

An experienced, animated public speaker in three languages—English, Mandarin Chinese, and the Cantonese dialect—James Chan is the author of the 60-minute DVD “Secrets of Business Success in China” by Malvern Press and is available on Amazon.com.

He is the author of Spare Room Tycoon, a book on the entrepreneurial stories of 40 men and women including James Chan who have turned their personal visions and passions into successful businesses. Read chapters of the book online at <http://www.SpareRoomTycoon.com>.

Born Wah-kong Chan in Guangzhou (Canton), China in 1949, James Chan grew up in Hong Kong and received his B.A. from the University of Hong Kong in 1970. He came to America in 1971 and received his M.A. from the University of Chicago and his Ph.D. in 1977 from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor in geography.

Before he founded his consultancy in 1983, James Chan was China Manager and International Promotion Manager at Academic Press, a subsidiary of HBJ, a Fortune 500 publishing company in New York. A naturalized U.S. citizen, James Chan lives and works in Philadelphia. Go to <http://www.AsiaMarketingManagement.com> to see his detailed profile. E-mail him at: JamesChan@AsiaMarketingManagement.com.